

As long as I pay for my phone I should decide who can call or not. This means the current law is great. If the phone sales folks want to be able to call customers we should have the option to sign up to have them pay for our phone bill. If they pay my phone bill they can call all they want!!!!!! See what they think of that.